A weekend away as a Church family to share life and ponder God's word together

“Therefore, if you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any common sharing in the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and of one mind.” (Phil. 2:1-2 NIV)

Speaker: Phil Case

I became a Christian in 1973 at age 21 and Christ has been the center of my life ever since. I have not always been strong, but he has always kept me in his love. I am divorced (1989) have 4 grown daughters with 9 grandchildren, 4 boys and 5 girls.

My passion is to preach and teach God’s word so people can take it in and the Spirit can apply it to their heart. It is my firm conviction that the Gospel IS the power of God for salvation. That means we are powerless to convert anyone. We can only witness to his truth and let the Spirit do his work.

My hobbies used to be making things, mainly woodwork & leatherwork, but I haven't done much since starting my own computer business in 1992. I like fixing things. My background is electronics & communications, then into computers and my own business. My daughters and grandchildren bring me great joy.

“When Duty becomes Joy”

For the camp my thinking is to look at the demands of following Jesus from the Gospels, and then looking at how the disciples and early church in Acts and the letters fulfilled these demands with joy.
